This is especially important in the transition from yellow to purple. I'm going to use the small round brush to refine the branches and paint the smaller ends. Eyes Using black, yellow, and white, we're going to start adding highlights to the branch in the same way we added them to the bird. For the next layer of the circle, pick up white and more yellow/than you did the first time. Add highlights to the wing that's facing away from you, his beak, and the top of his head. Keep adding highlights with yellow and white and lowlights with black There's no right or wrong here.
